Record Turnout?

At the March 28th Club meeting, we saw a big increase in attendance, after very healthy turnouts in January and February. Sixty-three attendees came out to Denny's on Tilton Road for nominations for this November's municipal races, and in anticipation of the County Convention held on April 4.

Northfield Republican Ticket

For Mayor, Harold Kauffman will represent the City of Northfield. Harold is a former councilman, retired from the prosecutor's office. Harold brings a great deal of knowledge of all facets of our City Government.

In the First Ward, Nick Droboniku will be the City Council nominee. Nick is a member of the Zoning and Planning Board, and a CPA with an office in Northfield.

Jim O'Neill is our Second Ward Council nominee. Jim is a small business owner and brings a lot of enthusiasm and innovative ideas to make our city better.

May Fundraiser

Mount Fuji Restaurant

Absecon, on the White Horse Pike

Friday, May 18 at 7:30 PM

$50 per person

Proceeds from the fundraiser will go to supporting the club, and to the successful campaigns of our candidates in the November elections. Come out and have fun.

County Republican Slate

The Atlantic County Republican Party nominated a very strong slate of candidates for county and state offices at the convention on April 4. Sonny, Denny and the candidate ticket will work hard for victory in November.

State Senate: State Senator James "Sonny" McCullough

NJ Assembly: John Amodio

NJ Assembly: Vince Polistina

County Executive: County Executive Denny Levinson

At Large Freeholder: Joe McDevitt
